Closing Lines

Can you guess the name of the novel by these the closing lines?

1. Animal Farm, George Orwell
The creatures outside looked from pig to man, and from man to pig, and from pig to man again; but already it was impossible to say which was which.
2. Romeo and Juliet, William Shakespeare
For never was a story of more woe
Than this of Juliet and her Romeo.
3. Charlotte's Web, E B White
It is not often that someone comes along who is a true friend and a good writer.
Charlotte was both.
4. The Handmaid's Tale, Margaret Attwood
"Are there any questions?"
5. Gone with the Wind, Margaret Mitchell
After all...tomorrow is another day.
6. Grapes of Wrath, John Steinbeck
She looked up and across the barn, and her lips came together and smiled mysteriously.

7. The Great Gatsby, F Scott Fitzgerald
So we beat on, boats against the current, borne back ceaselessly into the past.
8. To Kill a Mockingbird, Harper Lee
He turned out the light and went into Jem's room. He would be there all night, and he would be there when Jem waked up in the morning.
9. The Color Purple, Alice Walker
But I don't think us feel old at all. And us so happy. Matter of fact, I think this the youngest us ever felt. Amen.
10. The House at Poo Corner, A A Milne
But wherever they go, and whatever happens to them on the way, in that enchanted place on the top of the Forest a little boy and his Bear will always be playing.
11. The Ball Jar, Sylvia Plath
The eyes and faces all turned themselves towards me, and guiding myself by them, as by a magical thread, I stepped into the room.
12. Little Women, Louisa May Alcott
Oh, my girls, however long you may live, I never can wish you a greater happiness than this.
