Opening Lines

Can you guess the name of the novel by these the opening lines?

1. It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair.
2. It was a bright cold day in April, and the clocks were striking thirteen.
3. Call me Ishmael.
4. In a hole in the ground there lived a hobbit
5. It is a truth universally acknowledged, that a single man in possession of a good fortune, must be in want of a wife.
6. If you really want to hear about it, the first thing you'll probably want to know is where I was born, and what my lousy childhood was like, and how my parents were occupied and all before they had me, and all that David Copperfield kind of crap, but I don't feel like going into it, if you want to know the truth
7. Whether I shall turn out to be the hero of my own life, or whether that station will be held by anybody else, these pages must show
8. You don't know about me without you have read a book by the name of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer; but that ain't no matter.
9. It was a queer, sultry summer, the summer they electrocuted the Rosenbergs, and I didn't know what I was doing in New York.
10. When he was nearly thirteen, my brother Jem got his arm badly broken at the elbow.
11. Scarlett O'Hara was not beautiful, but men seldom realized it when caught by her charm as the Tarleton twins were.
12. All children except one, grow up.
