

Publication of Statutory Notices: Improving Specialist Provision for Children and Young People with Additional Learning Needs 2018-19

A report was considered by the Council's Cabinet on 19 April 2018 which set out recommendations following public consultation that took place earlier in the year on proposals regarding improving specialist provision for children and young people with additional learning needs 2018-19.

The Cabinet agreed for the Council to progress to the next stage and issue a legal Statutory Notices to:

- Increase the capacity of Ty Gwyn to allow for up to 198 places
- Extend the age range of Greenhill from 11-16 to 11-19 and increase the capacity of the school to allow for up to 64 places
- Change the type of special educational need Meadowbank School provides for
- Phase out the Specialist Resource Base at Allensbank School, closing the class in July 2020, or when all current pupils have completed their primary placement, if earlier; open an eight-place early intervention class for children with speech and language
- Open a specialist resource base at Ysgol Pwll Coch, providing up to 10 places initially, but with scope to extend to 20 places in future, as demand grows.
- Extend the place number of the SRB at Ysgol Glantaf to 30 places.

The notice allows a period of 28 days from the date of publication for formal objections to the proposals.

Objections should be sent to:

The Director of Education and Lifelong Learning,
The City of Cardiff Council,
County Hall,
Atlantic Wharf,
Cardiff,
CF10 4UW.

Objections may also be sent to the Director of Education and Lifelong Learning, Cardiff Council using the following e-mail address: SchoolResponses@cardiff.gov.uk.

Please note that any such objections sent by e-mail must contain the full name and postal address of the objector

